From the Baron and Baroness

The Baron and Baroness Lyondemere send greetings.

As you all probably know by now, we lost an illustrious longtime member of our Barony on August 17, Mistress Aliskye Rosel. Everyone who knew her well will forever have a hole in their hearts. People who only met her a few times will remember her kindness and cheerfulness. Lyondemere is forevermore in her debt.

Chronicler's Comments

What are your favorite things about the SCA? What drew you in? As a group, I think we all learn something new when we ask our friends about what attracts them about this Society.

This month, I'd love to get a few notes from various members of our Barony—new and veteran alike—that I can publish in the next few issues of the newsletter. Your voice matters. Please, share your thoughts with us.

Most sincerely,

Dame Eilidh Swann

How I got started in the SCA

Although I have been in Lyondemere since coming to Caid in 1988, my time in the SCA started back in the East Kingdom. It was 1976 and a group of people dressed in full 12th century garb passed me on a sidewalk one Saturday. I stopped one of them and wanted to know what when how? The lady handed me a flyer and said there was a tournament later that day in a park and invited me. Needless to say, of course I went and that hooked me forever.

That was in Rhode Island in my first barony: Barony of the Bridge. The people there were so welcoming and fun. I served as Baronial Mistress of Arts (their A&S) for five years and hosted a weekly garb workshop at my home.

I have been in the Middle and Glen Ahban for short times, but when moving to Caid I found my true SCA home. Caid is truly the best Kingdom, and I couldn't be prouder to call it, and Lyondemere, my home. I am very grateful for that chance meeting on a Saturday that led me to so much good friendship and happiness! Long Live Lyondemere!

“Whipcord” 4-strand braid One-person technique

By Dame Eilidh Swann

There are so many different braiding and weaving techniques to create strong cords. Fingerloop braiding techniques and lucets are familiar to some people, but for a very portable and endless length of braided cord, I really enjoy this four-strand “whipcord.”

You can load the four single strands on to bobbins and hook them overhead. Then grab a partner and throw bobbins back and forth at each other. Duchess Bridget loves to do demos with the two-person bobbin method.

You can also load some small bobbins and attach them to a staff or stick and braid on the go, as seen in this painting from the mid 1600s.

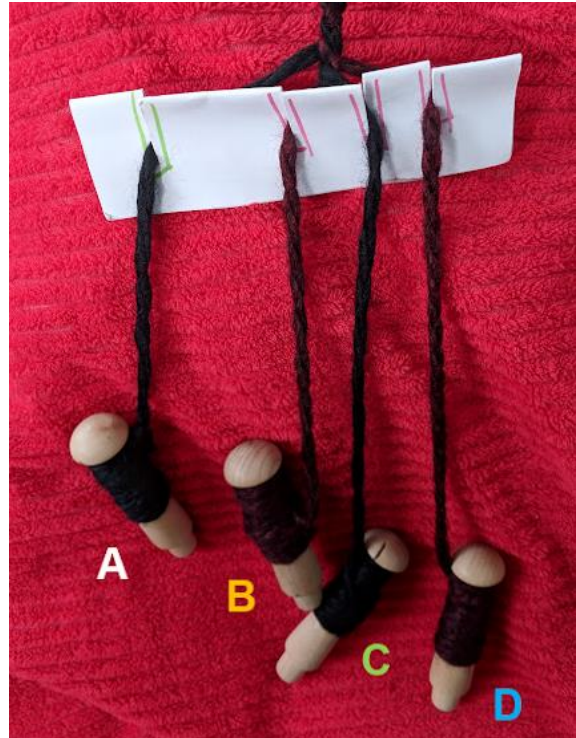

Detail from Education of the Virgin, Guido Reni, 1640-1642
Hermitage Museum, Saint Petersburg, Russia (public domain)

However, Sir Kolfinna taught me another one-person method years again, which I've outlined in this photo essay.

The key phrase is “Under Two, Around the Middle” and the moving bobbin will alternate as the left-most or right-most bobbin. I hope these photos help you learn this method.

One: Three strands (BCD) are braided on the right and one strand (A) on the left moves next.

One: When I set this down mid-braid, I secure the threads in a comb (or a “fake comb” like this one, made from paper). This helps me see the next moving bobbin and the three that just finished.

Two: Time to use the mantra: “Under Two, Around the Middle.” The moving bobbin in this case is the left-most one, labeled A.

Two: There is one bobbin to the left, three bobbins to the right

Three: The moving bobbin (A) follows the first half of the mantra, “Under two.” The moving bobbin (A) is shifted behind/under two bobbins.

Three: Be sure to make that move under/behind B and C. A is now between C and D.

Five: Time to tighten everything up.

Five: B, A, and C are now a set of three strands that look braided together on the left. Tighten them against the full braid above.

Four: Time to complete the mantra, “Around the middle.” Since C was the middle thread, A is wrapped around/in front of C. This finishes the move.

Four: Finishing the mantra and finishing all the moves for A

Six: Time to start the mantra from the other side of the set.

Six: Everything is tight on the left, which means the right bobbin is hanging out alone and is ready to start to move.

Seven: Start the mantra from the right-side moving bobbin. “Under two.” The moving bobbin (D) is shifted behind/under two bobbins (C and A).

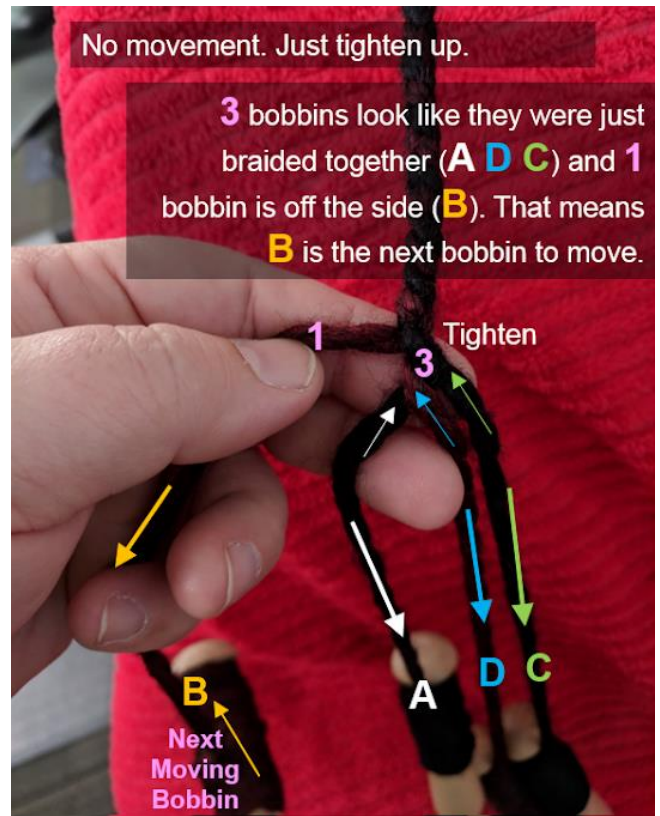

Seven: Be sure to make that move under/behind C and A. D is now between B and A.

Eight: Time to complete the mantra, “Around the middle.” Since A was the middle thread, D is wrapped around/in front of A. This finishes the move.

Eight: Finishing the mantra and finishing all the moves for D

Nine: Time to tighten everything again.

Nine: With everything tightened on the right side, this should look like your very first setup in step one.

With three threads together on the right, you’re back at the beginning again. Find the bobbin on the outside left, move it “Under two, Around the middle” and tighten everything up. This leaves one bobbin on the outside right, so once again, “Under two, Around the middle” and tighten.

If you use two dark and two light bobbins of thread or yarn, your finished braid can either have vertical stripes or spirals.

Enjoy!

Tri-Barony Scriptorium

The Tri-Barony Scriptorium will run every month hosted by the Kingdom Scribe Amarius, The Honorable Lady Valeria Cabriell at 15508 Piuma Ave. Norwalk CA 90650. All are welcome – Most conveniently serving the baronies of Lyondemere, Gyldenholt, and Angels!

Never been to a scriptorium? We work with manuscript arts: calligraphy and illumination (painting/gilding). Training and supplies are available for free. The house has been specifically designed to be a great scriptorium space with oversized tracing boards, a prosumer printer that will print manuscript references at size, a flat file full of good paper, and plenty of supplies that are just waiting for someone to use them.

The scriptorium runs from 11 AM–6 PM but there's no pressure to attend the whole thing. It is just easier, once set up, to work continuously for a while. Drop by for however long you want to come. We'll have food and snacks (though potluck contributions are certainly welcome). Contact scribe.armarius@sca-caid.org with any questions.

Gyldenholt Sunday Solar

Gyldenholt Sunday Solar is the third Sunday of the month, where a number of people gather at Duchess Bridget's to work on handcrafts, small projects, or learn a craft.

Sunday, September 17 – 1-4 PM BEADING!

Some participants will be making largesse for Gyldenholt to gift to newcomers. There will be beads and supplies, and you can bring your own.

Or feel free to work on something else. What craft do YOU want to learn and do? Do you have projects you need help on? We can help!

Folks are also welcome to bring their own projects to work on. We will be available for coaching on tablet weaving and spinning.

Tables and chairs will be set up inside (and outside if the weather is nice.) This is an animal- and smoke-free home. You can bring beverages and snacks. Well-behaved non-crafters get to watch Disney+!

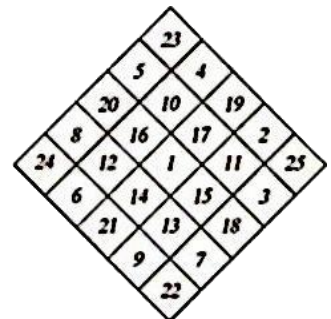

You can RSVP by joining the Barony of Gyldenholt Facebook group and then click Going on this event: <https://www.facebook.com/events/856993645815114/> to receive the street address for the event. Or you can contact Duchess Bridget directly at Bridget@blazingsword.com.

SSAC Lucky Target

My Lords and Ladies, pray attend! The new Seasonal Society Archery Competition ("Lucky Target") is now underway. This competition will run to November 30, 2023. Please join us in representing the Kingdom of Caid and in competing in this archery shoot. I look forward to seeing you on the range.

Pentathlon Returns in 2025

Breaking news! Due to the timing of my transition to KMOAS (Kingdom Minister of Arts and Sciences), and improvements we'd like to see implemented, Pentathlon will now be held in 2025 and NOT next year in 2024. For those of you who were considering entering but worried about getting your entries done on time, you now have a whole extra year!

Keep an eye out for an official date (looking at spring) as well as more information as it becomes available.

Baronial Council Meeting Minutes (August)

Monday, August 7, 2023

Zoom Virtual Meeting started at 7:30 PM – Attendees:
Eilidh, Gareth, Alatiel, Fearghus, Fedelm, Miguel,
Gabriello, Garrett (8 total)

Opening Comments

Baron and Baroness / Gareth and Alatiel: Let's just get things going, we are looking forward to being able to have in-person at Calle Mayor for September meeting. Would love some more show-and-tell from the barony members, maybe to have pizza.

Seneschal / Eilidh: Lots of notes in the meeting agenda.

Officer Reports

Arts and Sciences / Machine and Arwen:

(report sent in, cannot be here tonight) Online A&S classes will be scheduled the third Friday of the month hopefully starting September. We will also have face to face A&S but I am waiting until after Pennsic to confirm days/times. Probably these will be quarterly. I will be working with our Baroness to try to get all garb classes to happen at her open craft nights.

Chatelaine / Guillem: (report sent in, cannot be here tonight) Not much to report from the chatelaine post, although I am working on some flier/brochure stuff

Chronicler / Eilidh: The August Tydes has been published, thank you to those who corresponded with me about permissions and possible upcoming articles. I'd love to see photos from any event when Lyondemere is there. And would anyone like to take some pictures at fighter practices, archery practices, or arts gatherings? Finally, small little doodles would be gratefully appreciated.

Constable / Lupus: not here, no report sent in.

Exchequer / Gabriello: We made some money at the last events, sent checks to Kingdom and Non-member surcharge (NMS), soon should have the back account updated very soon. New banker here on Wednesday, so wrapping up these things very soon. Should be easy to get the right folks with their signature/Driver's License to a local branch. t.

Herald / Séamus: not here, no report sent in

Marshal (Armored Combat) / Fearghus: Heavy Weapons have been quiet lately, summer doldrums (too hot or people or out and about). Av. 4-5 fighters.

Marshal (Archery) / Emma: (report sent in, cannot be here tonight) Report for archery: Sundays are doing okay, 5 people. Thursdays (Rancho park) are great with 3 to 5 on average (8-10), sometimes more. Often 1 or more newer archers who are just starting out. Response to the email about the arrows still pending.

Miguel made 5 dozen sets of arrows for Rancho and working on loaner gear for El Dorado, and for Altavia and Starkhafn (willing to pay $50/dz), already got rid of the crappy arrows. Miguel will keep the donated gear and will be willing to sell/donate them. Gabriello looking into earmarked funds, $47, currently.

Marshal (Rapier Combat) / Sadhbh: (report sent in, cannot be here tonight) Rapier practices are going well, with 4-8 people regularly there including several newcomers. We are in need of some new loaner gear, particularly gorgets and torso protection in L/XL sizes. (We will also confirm what can be done for loaner gear, and there are funds in Gyldenholt for rapier equipment options. Contact Gaml.)

Scribes: Please contact Kingdom because there are funds already in place for supplies. Contact Valeria.

Social Media / Fedelm: Practices are scheduled for posts to Facebook.

Webwright / Sadhbh: (report sent in, cannot be here tonight) current Tydes is online (thanks Eilidh!). Let me know ASAP if any officer hasn't gotten into their new email account yet.
